“BOOK READING”

The power of a book lives in its power to turn a solitary act into a shared vision. Institution is committed to inspire creativity and foster camaraderie among students and encourage them to think critically about what they read in an academic, non-academic and non-competitive environment. The faculty members as a team strive to organize various activities to instil love for reading and to generate excitement of books.

The purpose of the Book reading and discussion is to interpret and describe the significance of your findings in light of what was already known about the research problem being investigated, and to explain any new understanding or fresh insights about the problem after you've taken the findings into consideration. The discussion will always connect to the introduction by way of the research questions or hypotheses you posed and the literature you reviewed. Book reading and reading strengthens the brain that enhances empathy and build vocabulary. Considering all these points, the institution organized Book launch, reading and discussion on the book written by College Alumni “Neev Ka Patthar”. The students were given assignment on analyzing the main aspect of book which help the students critically assess the literature.

Dr. Anjum Waris discussed about the constitutional provisions for the compulsory education. His main argument was based on the preamble and education. He insisted that a number of efforts have been initiated in India to make elementary education a fundamental right of every child. With the passing of the 93rd Constitution Amendment Bill, a major stride was witnessed in the evolution of the 93rd Constitution Amendment Bill into the 86th Constitution Amendment Act. With this Act, for the first time since the framing of the Constitution, was a Fundamental Right added to the Constitution of India. He described different constitutional provision for the compulsory education for every child. He argued that after passing of two decades of 93rd constitutional amendment we could not achieve 100 percent literacy and asked the students and teachers to impart education to under privileged students. He described how idea enlisted in the preamble promotes education for all section of the society.

Dr. Ashok Kumar Akela imparts students about the effective Internship in Teacher Education. He insisted that major objective of an effective teacher education program is to produce teachers capable of relating theoretical insights to actual practice. He argued that the students to achieve this objective, those responsible for developing and improving teacher preparation programs have provided the teacher candidate with some type of professional laboratory experience. He imparts the student and teachers that about the history of internship and argued that prior to the inception of the internship, a few leading teacher education programs provided the candidate with laboratory experiences through observation of children and of teaching, limited participation in teaching, and student teaching, all carried out under the close supervision of the teacher education institution and the cooperating public school.
